

New Mexico Public Health Association

"Promoting the health and well-being of all New Mexico"

The New Mexico Public Health Association is a private, non-profit membership association of individuals and organizations committed to the values of social justice, equity, inclusion, collaboration, and seeking the common good, and to carrying out our mission and goals with integrity, honesty, transparency, cultural humility, and passion. NMPHA has been focused on public health issues in New Mexico since 1917.

NMPHA hosts two annual events: a Health Policy Legislative Forum (usually in December) and the Annual Conference (usually in May). These two events are opportunities for learning, networking, and advocacy. Usually CEUs for nurses, social workers, and certified health education specialists are available at both events.

The Health Policy Legislative Forum is an opportunity for advocates (organizations and individuals) to share potential and proposed legislation, to build alliances and find partners, and to learn how the State Legislature functions.

The Annual Conference provides opportunities for learning, sharing ideas, research, and experience, and building and strengthening connections and partnerships.

NMPHA has three priority areas for work and learning: Social Determinants of Health, Environmental Health and Justice, and Universal Access to Health Care.

For more information on NMPHA, or to become a member of NMPHA, please contact Tracy McDaniel at 505.889.9888 or 575.646.0318 or via e-mail at tmcdaniel.nmpaha@gmail.com or visit our website at www.nmpaha.org.

New Mexico Public Health Association

"Promoting the health and well-being of all New Mexico"

The New Mexico Public Health Association is a private, non-profit membership association of individuals and organizations committed to the values of social justice, equity, inclusion, collaboration, and seeking the common good, and to carrying out our mission and goals with integrity, honesty, transparency, cultural humility, and passion. NMPHA has been focused on public health issues in New Mexico since 1917.

NMPHA hosts two annual events: a Health Policy Legislative Forum (usually in December) and the Annual Conference (usually in May). These two events are opportunities for learning, networking, and advocacy. Usually CEUs for nurses, social workers, and certified health education specialists are available at both events.

The Health Policy Legislative Forum is an opportunity for advocates (organizations and individuals) to share potential and proposed legislation, to build alliances and find partners, and to learn how the State Legislature functions.

The Annual Conference provides opportunities for learning, sharing ideas, research, and experience, and building and strengthening connections and partnerships.

NMPHA has three priority areas for work and learning: Social Determinants of Health, Environmental Health and Justice, and Universal Access to Health Care.

For more information on NMPHA, or to become a member of NMPHA, please contact Tracy McDaniel at 505.889.9888 or 575.646.0318 or via e-mail at tmcdaniel.nmpaha@gmail.com or visit our website at www.nmpaha.org.

New Mexico Public Health Association

"Promoting the health and well-being of all New Mexico"

The New Mexico Public Health Association is a private, non-profit membership association of individuals and organizations committed to the values of social justice, equity, inclusion, collaboration, and seeking the common good, and to carrying out our mission and goals with integrity, honesty, transparency, cultural humility, and passion. NMPHA has been focused on public health issues in New Mexico since 1917.

NMPHA hosts two annual events: a Health Policy Legislative Forum (usually in December) and the Annual Conference (usually in May). These two events are opportunities for learning, networking, and advocacy. Usually CEUs for nurses, social workers, and certified health education specialists are available at both events.

The Health Policy Legislative Forum is an opportunity for advocates (organizations and individuals) to share potential and proposed legislation, to build alliances and find partners, and to learn how the State Legislature functions.

The Annual Conference provides opportunities for learning, sharing ideas, research, and experience, and building and strengthening connections and partnerships.

NMPHA has three priority areas for work and learning: Social Determinants of Health, Environmental Health and Justice, and Universal Access to Health Care.

For more information on NMPHA, or to become a member of NMPHA, please contact Tracy McDaniel at 505.889.9888 or 575.646.0318 or via e-mail at tmcdaniel.nmpaha@gmail.com or visit our website at www.nmpaha.org.